

INDIGENOUS CO-STEWARDSHIP OF PUBLIC LANDS: LESSONS FOR THE FUTURE

February 21, 2024, Graton Resort and Casino, Rohnert Park, CA

AGENDA

- 8:00-9:00 Registration and continental breakfast
- 9:00-9:15 Conference Welcoming
- Opening Statements
- 9:15-9:20 Opening Prayer
- 9:20-9:25 Introduction
- 9:25-9:45 FIGR Co-Stewardship and Co-Management
- 9:45-10:10 Announcements

CO-STEWARDSHIP NATIONALLY

Co-Stewardship in Present-Day California

- 10:10-10:15 Announcements/Introduction
- 10:15-10:35 Point Reyes National Seashore
- 10:35-10:40 Announcements
- 10:40-11:00 The Karuk Tribe: Moving from Co-Stewardship to Co-Management
- 11:00-11:05 Announcements
- 11:05-11:25 Mooretown Rancheria of Maidu Indians of California
- 11:25-11:30 Announcements
- 11:30-11:50 California Department of Parks and Recreation
- 11:50-12:45 Lunch Break

Co-Stewardship in Other States

- 12:45-12:50 Announcements/Introduction
- 12:50-1:10 Grassroots Strategies at Bears Ears National Monument, Utah
- 1:10-1:15 Announcements
- 1:15-1:35 Virtual Presentation of Co-Stewardship of Grand Portage National Monument, Minnesota
- 1:35-1:40 Announcements
- 1:40-2:00 Co-Stewardship of the Yukon Flats National Wildlife Refuge, Alaska

CO-STEWARDSHIP INTERNATIONALLY

Co-Stewardship in Canada

- 2:00-2:05 Announcements

2:05-2:25 A Virtual Presentation on the Co-Stewardship of Parks Canada

2:25-2:35 Break

Co-Stewardship in México

2:35-2:40 Announcements

2:40-3:00 A Virtual Presentation on “Community-led Conservation: Environmental Governance and Organization in Indigenous and Local Communities in the Yucatan Peninsula”

3:00-3:05 Announcements

3:05-3:25 Biocultural Governance in the Mayan Region of Puuc

3:25-4:20 Q&A and reflections

4:20-4:30 Closing remarks

5:30-7:00: Reception with cultural presentations and displays hosted by the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria. Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served.

Day 2 – February 22, 2024

9:00-3:00 - Field trips